Certus adds to Florida market with the acquisition of Ambassador Pest Management

Certus expands further into south Florida with the acquisition of Ambassador Pest Management. Founded in 1989, Ambassador is one of the oldest and most respected family-owned pest control companies operating in the West Palm Beach area.

Owner and founder Scott Lewis has grown his business over the past 32 years through his commitment to providing exceptional service and superb customer care. He commented “Selling the business I built from the ground up was a difficult decision. By choosing Certus, a company that truly puts people first and is committed to excellent service, I’m confident that I’m leaving both my customers and employees in great hands.”

Mike Givlin, CEO and co-founder of Certus, commented “We’re excited to continue to develop our Florida business with the addition of Ambassador Pest Management. Scott has built a strong business with a long history of commitment to his customers; we’re proud to have been chosen to take up that mantle.”

Rand Hollon from Preferred Business Brokers represented and acted as exclusive financial advisors to Ambassador Pest Management in this transaction.

About Certus

Certus is a different kind of pest control company built on a foundation of putting people first, doing the right thing, and always reaching higher. Founded in 2019, our team has taken decades of industry experience and brought a new way of thinking to pest control. Simply put, we believe there is always a better way - not only in the pest control methods we use, but in how we operate our business itself. Over the next few years, we expect to build a Top 10 PCT company.
