Certus expands in the Las Vegas market with the acquisitions of Delcon Pest Control and Jackson Pest Control.

Certus continues to expand in the Las Vegas metro with the acquisitions of Delcon Pest Control and Jackson Pest Control. Misty Goodroad is President and Owner of Delcon Pest Control, the company her father founded in the 1980s. She commented “I grew up in the pest control industry, so I understand that the commitment to technical expertise and employee support can truly set a company apart in this business. With Certus, I know I’ve found a company that will continue to serve my customers and employees with this focus.” Misty and her family have a long history serving the pest control industry, and she will continue as the president of the Nevada Pest Management Association.

Jackson Pest Control, also operating in the greater Las Vegas area, was founded by Leroy Jackson. He said “Although I’ve led a smaller owner-operator pest control business, I still wanted to sell to a company that understood the Las Vegas market and would take good care of my customers. I’m happy I found that in Certus.”

Mike Givlin, CEO and co-founder of Certus, stated “Over the past year, we have built a significant presence in the Nevada market bringing five Las Vegas based companies into the Certus family. The additions of Delcon Pest Control and Jackson Pest Control make that foundation of quality and service even stronger.”
